

Jeff Segar, P.E., S.E.

Mr. Segar Principal Engineer at Braun Intertec and leads the GeoStructures and Temporary Structures group. He has been the Engineer of Record and responsible for project related design and production of construction documents for many structures built using steel, concrete, masonry, geogrid fabrics and timber construction. He provides structural engineering services for support of excavation, slope stabilization, and falsework. Mr. Segar is currently on the board of directors for the ADSC-IAFD and the Co-Chair of the Joint ADSC-IAFD and DFI Anchored Earth Retention Committee.