Information

Conference Materials
In accordance with Presbyterian Healthcare Services’ sustainability initiative, the course handouts/syllabus materials are online ahead of time to give attendees the opportunity to view, download or print them prior to the conference. Confirmed registrants will receive an email announcing notifying them when syllabus materials will be available online. Printed syllabi will not be available onsite.

Conference Attire
Conference dress is business casual and each attendee is encouraged to bring a sweater or jacket for comfort during the meeting.

Attendee Cancellation, Substitution, Refund
The course tuition is refundable, minus a $25 administrative fee, if your cancellation is received in writing no later than September 7, 2017. Attendee substitution is allowable, but notification must be made in writing by the Tuesday prior to the course. After this date, under no circumstances will refunds, credits or substitutions be granted. Also, no refunds or credits will be given if you do not notify us of your cancellation.

Presbyterian Conference Modification or Cancellation
Presbyterian Healthcare Services reserves the right to modify the course’s schedule or program as necessary. Presbyterian also reserves the right to cancel this conference, in which case a full refund of the registration fee will be provided. We are unable to refund any travel costs (flight, hotel, etc.) in the event of cancellation.

Statement of Educational Need
This conference is to provide an update on the most current evidence-based diagnostic and treatment strategies for your patients. It will focus on practical and clinical issues faced on a daily basis by healthcare professionals. A combination of case presentations and didactic lectures will provide an academically sound and clinically relevant cardiovasculary review.

Target Audience
This course is for adult primary care physicians, internists, family practitioners, cardiologists, emergency room physicians, advanced practice professionals, pharmacists, nurses and others involved in the care of patients with cardiac conditions.

Learning Objectives
Upon conclusion of the conference, participants should be able to:

• Identify new approaches to peri-procedural antithrombotic management in order to appropriately modify follow-up care.

• Incorporate heart failure concepts and approaches within an integrated healthcare system into the practitioner’s practice setting.

•Differentiate between STEMl/STEMlI and common heart arrhythmias to choose appropriate referral and/or treatment and follow up.

• Recognize stroke symptomatology and appropriate interventions in the acute stroke setting to expedite early intervention.

• Identify new concepts in vascular interventional treatment modalities, electrophysiology, cardiology, acute coronary syndromes and antithrombotic management to optimize referral, follow-up and long-term patient outcomes.
